 NEWS RELEASE *****

DATE: August 15, 2007

By: Detective Sergeant Kevin Ahern

On August 15, 2007 the Shelton Police Detectives served two outstanding arrest warrants on Vincent Seno, Sr. age 43, last known address of 19 Perry Av., Shelton CT for Larceny 2nd.

Shelton Police Detectives began an investigation of Vincent Seno, Sr. in April and May of 2007 after the Shelton Police Department received two separate complaints from elderly residents of Shelton. The residents had reported being scammed out of money by an individual who claimed that he knew them.

Vincent Seno, Sr. would confront the elderly individuals outside local businesses claiming he needed money for automobile repairs.

Vincent Seno, Sr. is currently being held at the Bridgeport Correctional Center on a $225,000.00 bond from arrests made in August of 2007 by the Monroe Police Department for similar crimes which occurred in their town.

Vincent Seno, Sr. was being arraigned in Derby Superior Court today.
