DATE: August 17, 2007

By: Detective Sergeant Kevin Ahern

On August 27, 2007 at approximately 11:30 AM the Shelton Police Department received a complaint from an 18 year old female reporting she was robbed while walking on Coram Av in the area of High St. The victim reported the assailant asked for help with his daughter and lured her onto High St where he grabbed her and knocked her to the ground. The assailant held her down and went through her pockets taking money. The assailant also struck the victim in the face. The victim was treated by Shelton EMS personnel on scene.

The complainant described the assailant as a thin white male with short brown hair and blue eyes. The assailant was wearing a white tank top type t-shirt with long white and gray camouflage pants.

The Shelton Police detectives are asking anyone who may have been in the area during this time to contact the Detectives at 924-1544
