By: Detective Sergeant Kevin F. Ahern

At approximately 1:05 AM on December 24, 2007 the Shelton Police Department received a 911 call of suspicious activity in the area of Coram Av and Cornell St. Responding patrol officers located a white man approximately 26 years old who had been stabbed several times in the back. Shelton EMS responded and transported the victim to Bridgeport Hospital.

Shelton Police Detectives responded and are conducting an investigation. Police are following reports that the victim may have been assaulted by more than one person. It is not clear to the detectives the reason for the assault. Police Detectives believe the assault could have occurred between Howe Av and Coram Av in the downtown area. Police Detectives are asking anyone who may have been in that area at the time to call the Shelton Police Department at 203-924-1544.

The victim is being treated for serious non-life threatening injuries and was being admitted to Bridgeport Hospital for observation.
