Building Collapse Causes Road Closures

On 03-31-08 at approximately 09:45 a.m., Shelton Police and Fire Departments responded to a building located at 64 Bridge St, on a report that the building was partially collapsed. The building is located on the corner of Howe Ave (Route 110) and Bridge St. The building had a partial collapse causing the building to be deemed structurally unsafe by the City of Shelton Building Department. The building was unoccupied. Construction crews arrived on scene and began the process of demolition.

Howe Ave (Route 110) will be closed in both directions from Bridge St to Center St until sometime tomorrow. The police department is advising motorists to seek another route to their destinations. Officers will be on scene assisting with traffic.
