Shelton Police Investigating an Assault

On April 22, 2010 at approximately 4:45 pm, Shelton Police received a call stating that a male was lying on the ground and bleeding on Canal St by Bridge St. Shelton EMS and police were sent to the scene to investigate. Police and EMS located a seventeen year old male who was incoherent and bleeding from the nose and ears. The male was taken to Yale New Haven Hospital by EMS for treatment.

Police were able to locate several witnesses to the incident. Police believe that the individuals involved in this altercation are known to each other, and this was not a random incident. There is no evidence at this time that any weapons were used in this assault.

This incident is currently under investigation and no arrests have been made at this time. Police are asking anyone with information to call the department at (203) 924-1544.
